CHILL OUT WITH RASA

NEW releases from New York-based Rasa include Rasa Mello 2, a compilation of chill out music featuring Gotan Project, Deepak Chopra and Antonio Da Costa; and Voices from Italian composer/producer Riccardo Eberspacher. The company was founded by Donna D'Cruz and is associated with Australian Music International. One of its biggest successes has been A Gift Of Love, in which Deepak Chopra and guests such as Madonna read the 13th-century poetry of Jelaluddin Rumi to a musical backdrop. India-born D'Cruz said: "Rather than focus on faceless synthesized music, we want to market music with an intimate, personal flavour. We want to hear a strong human element which conveys the emotional essence of diverse societies."
